

Andrew C.M. Mizesak

Andrew Mizesak is the Adjutant of the James A. Garfield Civil War Round Table, a position he has held since 2019. Prior to that, he served as the first Secretary of the James A. Garfield Civil War Round Table. In his role with the James A. Garfield Civil War Round Table, he serves as the Administrative Officer of the Organization, where he serves as the principal planner for all outreach activities and organizational events. Colonel Mizesak also serves as the Senior Advisor to Commander Benjamin Frayser. Colonel Mizesak is in his ninth year as Co-Chair of the annual Garfield Symposium and has presented to numerous organizations on a variety of Civil War and Presidential History topics since 2012.

By day, he is the principal consultant and CEO of Main Street Consultants, a government and public affairs consulting firm that also assists organizations with grant-writing and communications.

Colonel Mizesak holds a Master of Applied Politics Degree (M.A.P.) from the Ray C. Bliss Institute of Applied Politics at the University of Akron (2004), where he was a full-scholarship student, and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from Bowling Green State University (2002). Colonel Mizesak has completed some post-graduate coursework through the Ashbrook Center at Ashland University and has also taken coursework in American History through the University of Akron, as well as coursework in education from Ashland University and Lake Erie College. Additionally, Colonel Mizesak has taken coursework from the Eppley Institute for Parks and Public Lands at Indiana University.