

Michael Movius, President

Mike Movius is the founder and president of the CWRT Congress and former president of the Puget Sound CWRT in Seattle. Mike holds an undergraduate degree from the University of Washington, a Master of Public Administration with a concentration in organization development from The Evergreen State College and a masters certificate in project management from Villanova University.

He led several organizational renewal projects while in the Governor's office including the merger of four agencies that became the Washington State Department of Health. Mike was the staff director for the Governor's Economic Development Cabinet and led the research and development office for the Washington State Patrol. Mike was the CIO for one of the largest school districts in the country and managed multi-million-dollar projects for the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle.

Mike's TEAMS program for traffic law enforcement received national recognition from the Kennedy School of Government and the Ford Foundation. He also received the State Patrol's Award of Honor for valorous conduct in a SWAT team multiple hostage rescue situation, the NESA Outstanding Eagle Scout Award, and the BSA Alumnus of the Year award. He is married to his wife Denise, has two Eagle Scout sons, and resides in Olympia, Washington.