Welcome to the Connecticut Civil War Round Tables Website

The CTCWRT is a non-profit organization whose main objective is to bring forward the history of the great war between the states and to help observe the memory of many of our brave soldiers who paid the ultimate sacrifice between 1861 - 1865. Let us not forget them.

Please Note:
The Civil War Round Table is proud to announce our new meeting location at the Torrington Library Community Room, 12 Daycoeton Place, Torrington CT. New meeting times are now 11:30 - 2:20. Check flyers below for more information as location and times can change.

Want to join the Connecticut Civil War Round Table or renew your membership? Click on the link below and print out the form.
Welcome
Pasadena Civil War Round Table (CWRT) is fortunate to offer free presentations to all visitors thanks to the generous donations of many Civil War history supporters.

The CWRT welcomes all donations to help keep this important history alive today. CLICK HERE

Our meeting venue is the Pasadena Central Library in the beautiful Donald R. Wright Auditorium. This may well be the finest venue of any Civil War Round Table. Here is a link for a map to the Pasadena Central Library: CLICK HERE

This web site will not be maintained after 21st September 2017. Current information about the San Francisco Civil War Round Table can be found on Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/SanFranciscoCivilWarRoundTable/

The records of meetings going back to 2008 can still be found at Archives.
Two hundred years after his birth, the life and legacy of Abraham Lincoln continues to fascinate and inspire. Born into poverty on the edge of an untamed frontier, his rise from obscurity to greatness has become a symbol of the universal hope that we can all improve our circumstances in life.

Civil War Round Table

The Inland Empire Civil War Round Table (ECWRT) is an educational organization open to anyone interested in the American Civil War, 1861-65. Founded in 1987, the Round Table is both a setting for formal talks and a forum for informal discussions of topics related to the Civil War.

The group publishes a monthly newsletter, The Hardtack and meets the second Wednesday of each month (except February, July, and August) from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm in the Lincoln Memorial Shrine.

In response to the COVID-19 health crisis, in-person ECWRT meetings are currently on hiatus. Contact icwrt@gmail.com for information on virtual meetings.

Follow the ECWRT on Facebook for the latest news and updates: https://www.facebook.com/InlandEmpireCivilWarRoundTable

Contact the Inland Empire CWRT at icwrt@gmail.com

MISSION STATEMENT

As a museum and memorial, the Lincoln Memorial Shrine seeks to deepen the understanding of President Abraham Lincoln and the American Civil War and its impacts on generations of Americans through education, interaction, exhibition, and research.

MAKE A DONATION

If you would like to make a donation to the Lincoln Memorial Shrine, please contact Nathan Gonzales, Curator at (909)786-7632 or donations@林肯.org.

We are continuing with Zoom meetings this fall.

Ann Arbor Civil War Round Table (aacwrt.org)

Who We Are
The Ann Arbor Civil War Round Table is a group of enthusiasts from the greater Ann Arbor, Michigan area who are interested in reading, discussing and hearing about the Civil War.

What We Do
The Round Table meets monthly to listen to speakers on various topics from the Conflict. We discuss issues of preservation, raise money for those issues, and get information on local, state and national Civil War news. We also hear from our members on the latest books, movies and TV programs of Civil War interest; when and where local living history or reenactments may be taking place; and recommendations on Civil War sites to visit.

Where We Meet
The Round Table meets at 7:00 p.m. on the second Monday of each month, September through June. Our meeting place is:
St. Joseph Mercy Hospital
Administration Building: Exhibition Room
5300 Elliott Drive (go to List "P")
Ann Arbor, Michigan
(opposite Washtenaw Community College)

Mouse-click here for a general location map in PDF format to print, if you need it. Other maps of the hospital campus and the building where we meet are here and here.
