THE GRAFFITI HOUSE IN BRANDY STATION

The Graffiti House, located in the eastern end of the town of Brandy Station, Virginia, is believed by the Brandy Station Foundation to have been built in 1858. It is one of few dwellings in the village built before the American Civil War to survive intact to this day. The house is notable because of the Civil War era graffiti on many of the walls. The graffiti found includes names, drawings, names of units, and inscriptions left by soldiers. Author and historian Gregory Mertz will walk you through the house, highlighting some of the more intriguing graffiti and tell stories about their possible artists and meaning.
