THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION & PURPOSE

The CWRT Congress’ SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE is a program designed to provide every local Civil War Round Table (CWRT) and its leaders with useful tools for planning and implementing a well-rounded series of activities to engage every member to improve mission accomplishment. In other words, the SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE is designed to help every Round Table provide its members with a superior experience while managing organizational improvement and growth.

It is important to note that the SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE is NOT a contest or competition. It is also not a “report card.” The SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE is simply an opportunity for each participating Round Table to challenge itself to be a more vibrant and engaged version of itself through self-guided activities.

Participating in the SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE is a local Round Table decision and is strictly voluntary; however, we sincerely hope each Round Table will choose to participate. It is our desire that every Round Table that “embraces” the CHALLENGE will experience a marked increase in member participation and enthusiasm. Moreover, the SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE should ultimately improve a Round Table, as well as enrich and enhance the overall experience for every member.

Submission of THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE is a crucial step in the continued development and success of your Round Table. Lessons learned and best practices on the activities undertaken are extremely valuable pieces of information that will be shared with other Round Tables. By submitting your information, you are helping to improve THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE for every Round Table member.

To summarize, the SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE should make your Round Table stronger, more successful, and provide an enhanced experience and value for your members.

THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE

MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

Civil War education and member activities represent the heart, soul, and mission of every Civil War Round Table. Every member should expect that these goals and criteria are fully implemented by their leaders, with the expectation of the quality of an enlightened organization.

The intent of the SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE is to assist each Round Table to carry out its mission by providing a rewarding experience for its members. The CHALLENGE is broken into 10 Modules which cover the full scope of organizational improvement.

Civil War Round Table leaders are neither expected nor encouraged to complete multiple challenge Modules simultaneously. Rather, it is suggested that a participating Round Table evaluate the status of its organization, determine its strengths and weaknesses, recruit members to form a challenge team, decide which areas are most appropriate for them to address, and to actively pursue completion of the Modules one at a time. It is further recommended that Round Tables evaluate their results to determine if their expectations and goals have been achieved.

Module 1: Membership Retention / Engagement

- Establish a Membership Retention Team (MRT) that is tasked to encourage member renewal.
- Gather and retain member contact information.
- Maintain contact with all members throughout the Round Table season.
- Communicate with members through surveys, telephone calls, emails, texts, and other means.

Module 2: Member Education

- Establish a Program Committee to seek the types of history programs that members desire and provide a program agenda based on member preferences.
- The Round Table should endeavor to provide various programs for members and visitors to engage in the study of the Civil War and 19th Century America.
- The Program Committee should ensure that distant members have access to presentations through various methods including online education.
Module 3: Recruitment Marketing
- The Round Table should develop marketing materials, videos, and presentations that can be displayed in a variety of settings throughout the local community.
- Establish a Membership Recruitment Group (MRG) to schedule a variety of programs to engage members in the recruitment effort.
- The MRG should employ the knowledge of generational interests (Gen X, etc.) to target potential members.

Module 4: New Member Engagement
- The Round Table should adopt an attitude of engagement with new members, seeking their views regarding program choices, and offering them the opportunity to join a Program Advisory Council.
- The Round Table leadership should provide membership gifts to new members and ensure that their biographical information and photographs are displayed through a newsletter and/or social media.
- New members should be encouraged to develop a project or event as a group, when possible.

Module 5: Meeting Experience
- In addition to routine programs, invite living historians, historic musicians and dance groups, poets, and other performers for their entertainment value.
- Members should be continuously surveyed about their meeting experiences and how they may be improved. Utilize the best suggestions for forthcoming program development purposes.

Module 6: New Member Education
- Encourage the provision of gifts for new members that will enhance their education of the Civil War while welcoming them into the membership of the Round Table.
- Introduce new members to the CWRT Congress and the many resources and services provided by the Congress to local Round Tables and their members.

Module 7: Philanthropy
- Enable the Round Table to become known in the local community for involvement in the preservation of historic memories.
- Establish a practice of encouraging Round Table members to join and support preservation organizations.
- Support the good works of community organizations which reflect the mission and values of the local Round Table.

Module 8: Public Image
- Enhance the image of the local Round Table through events, philanthropic activities, and/or other community functions.
• Become the go-to organization about the history of the Civil War and 19th Century America.
• Develop a public persona for your Round Table by recognizing other individuals and organizations that perform public education activities and programs.

Module 9: CWRT Leadership & Management
- Review and update the Round Table constitution and bylaws to include duties, job descriptions and expectations of those who are elected and/or appointed for committee assignments.
- Ask Round Table officials to conduct a self-assessment to ensure they perform their stipulated duties, confront challenges, and support community expansion.
- Provide a level of training and/or mentoring for all Round Table members who assume new duties within the organization.

Module 10: CWRT Partnerships
- Establish real community partnerships that provide interesting activities, enhance member recruitment and retention efforts, and that strengthens all organizational partners and their member experiences.

Round Tables that complete all Required and the requisite number of Elective Initiatives in each numbered Module will earn THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD.
THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE

COMPLETION INSTRUCTIONS

These Required and Elective Initiatives are designed to challenge the Round Table, its members, and leaders to excel across a broad spectrum of related subjects. They are not to be interpreted literally.

To complete THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE Submission Form, electronically complete the open Required and Elective spaces provided after every Initiative.
