

01:13:15 Ed Lowe: How do tables plan to meet with COVID and safety measures you are taking to mitigate the risks. Ed Lowe Chickamauga and Chattanooga CWRT.

01:17:07 Carol: Did you pay an honorarium for those presentations?

01:17:45 scdguidon: Did people have to register for each meeting. Shelly, Scottsdale CWRT

01:22:28 Timothy: if you have speakers on zoom do you pay them a full amount or something less. Tim Antosy First Defenders CWRT

01:23:48 Ed Lowe: When a Round Table does open back up for live meetings, what mitigation measures are recommended to prevent COVID spread? Any liability concerns for a Round Table also from that perspective if members should catch COVID. Ed Lowe, Chickamauga and Chattanooga RT

01:25:30 Carol: Do you intend to open in September? Carol, Twin Cities CWRT

01:27:41 Mark: To Carol: Our CWRT is opening in September. The room is large enough to accommodate our usual meeting. We will be social distancing by having 5 persons per table than the usual 8-9. Puget Sound CWRT.

01:29:09 scdguidon: For each Zoom meeting do you have a meeting number and a password.
Shelly SCWRT

01:29:29 Jim Madden - Zoom has some security issues, including hacking. Have you had concerns or issues of outsiders coming in and disrupting a meeting - Phil Kearny CWRT of North Jersey

01:32:52 Carol: What is the experience for an attendance of 100 on zoom? Carol at Twin Cities CWRT.

01:36:43 Ed Lowe: TEAM CWRT is a great idea. I'm reviving the Chickamauga and Chattanooga CWRT, hoping to open up in September. But this site will be MUCH appreciated.

01:37:45 Blake Myers: Will you send participant the Team CWRT FB Group slide?

01:39:58 Timothy please repeat when next zoom meeting is

01:41:04 William Ghormley: Thanks all!
